This bright and cozy apartment overlooking the greenery is located on the 1st floor of a building from 1936, which was created according to the urban plan of renowned architect Ladislav Machoň. It stands in popular Břevnov, on a quiet side street within walking distance of Hradčany, the Great Strahov Garden, and Kajetánka Park near the Břevnov Monastery.

The area of the apartment is divided into a west-facing corner living room, a kitchen, a bathroom (with a bathtub), a separate toilet, a pantry, and a hallway with built-in storage.

The interior has been completely renovated. Facilities include floating laminate floors; the kitchen is equipped with a gas stove, electric oven, hood, refrigerator, and freezer. There is also a washing machine. Central heating. The building has been refurbished, insulated, windows are plastic, common areas are guarded by a camera system. A pram room is available for residents.

The location has all civic amenities; nearby are shops including a farmers' market grocery store, a pharmacy, a clinic, restaurants and cafes, a branch of the city library, or the Dlabačov cinema. It is a very green neighborhood—streets are lined with trees and Kajetánka Park, the Monastery Garden, the Great Strahov Gardens, or Ladronka Park are all close-by. Transport connections are provided by buses and trams; both stops are within a 5-minute walk.
